Lufthansa Technik now in Moscow

"Our response to the growing demand for aircraft servicing"

Lufthansa Technik (LHT) has opened its representative office in Moscow. Head of the LHT Office for Eastern Europe is Peter Kamenz.

"Opening a Lufthansa Technik representative office in Moscow will enable us to expand our service network in this fast-growing market," says Peter Kamenz. "It will help to speed up our work and will make us better able to meet the specific requirements of our present and future customers in the servicing of their aircraft."

The main function of the Eastern-European office is to inform the region's airlines about LHT's full line of services as well as to take over management of the contractual relationships already in existence. The address of the Moscow office is:

Lufthansa Technik AG
Sheremetyevo 2 / Airport
Novotel / Suite 1141
103339 Moscow, Russia
Phone and Fax: ++7-502-290 88 35

The permanent contact in Moscow is Dmitri Y. Zaitsev, Lufthansa Technik Representative Eastern Europe and the CIS.

Further representative offices of Lufthansa Technik are located in Beijing, Singapore, Jakarta and Los Angeles.
